Help Tell the Tale

This compilation contains a lot of information about who begot who, when and where, but it doesn't really tell stories about our families.

If you can add to our family histories or have an anecdote to tell, then please share it. It helps make our different family stories come alive.

So pitch in and send me pertinent documents, photos, videos or recordings for inclusion in our digital archive at <https://wbowe.com>, The Families: Vol 2.

Your children or their children will appreciate it and may even return the favor some day.

William John Bowe, Jr.

Introduction

The following pages list data for many family members as of January 02, 2021.

This document reports the details of 1637 individuals, of whom 830 are male and 804 are female. The sex of 3 individuals is unknown. Of the 351 individuals with recorded birth and death dates, the average lifespan was 66.32 years. Of these, 199 males averaged 63.99 years, and 152 females averaged 69.38 years. The longest living male was Anthony M. Parish (1892–1987), who died aged 94. The longest living female was Alice Ann HASLETT (1895–1997), who died aged 102. Each immediate family is presented in their own section that contains a graphical family tree as well as a description with information about each referenced person and their children.

The child section provides information about the children of the preceding couple. When a child has offspring of their own this is presented in a separate family section for that child. In this case a '+' is used to denote that an individual will appear later in the book as a parent with his/her own children and there is a link to the appropriate family reference number. For children with partners but no offspring the partner data is given with the reference family. Roman numerals, followed by a period, are used to indicate the birth order.

In the chapter titled "Family of the Starting Person" the ancestors of Anthony Canavan and Catherine Kirby are presented in a kind of enhanced Pedigree Chart which displays the graphic representation of their direct-line ancestors and the children of the couple. This chapter contains information about the couple whose offspring are listed in the later chapters.

The chapter titled "Families of his Descendants" provides details (as known as of the publication date) for the offspring of Anthony Canavan and Catherine Kirby. There is a chapter for each generation. Relatives are listed in the order of the nearness of their relationship.

Sources for the information provided are given in the footnotes.

Family of Catherine McGRATH and Levi HASLETT

7. Catherine McGRATH was born in 1830 in Ireland. She was the daughter of Darby McGrath and Ann Canavan (2).

Catherine died in Chicago, Cook, Illinois, on August 02, 1893, at the age of 63.

DOD/POD come from Denise Weinberg "Just Us Family Tree."

According to Carl, Catherine's date of birth was unknown, even to Catherine.

According to Carl, his father would fetch groceries for Catherine. She gave him a list written in Gaelic. William figured that the store owner could read Gaelic because he couldn't. But he got in trouble from Catherine when he failed to get something that was on the list.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. LEVI HASLETT

Mrs. Catharine Haslett, wife of Levi Haslett, died at her home in this city, Wed. Aug. 2nd, 1893. She had been of feeble health for several weeks. She was up and about as inclination prompted and on Wed. morning was in the back yard when she suddenly became prostrated with what is supposed to be heart trouble. She was found a few moments later by her daughter, Mrs. Brady, carried into the house and medical aid summoned, but life departed almost instantly. Mrs. Haslett was born Catharine McGrath, a native of Mayo, Ireland, in the year 1831. She continued to live in the land of her birth until the year 1850, when with her family she came to this country, first locating at Philadelphia. Later they moved to Chicago. On July 4th, 1855, she and Levi Haslett were united in marriage and took up residence in the family home in Ganeer Township. They later moved to the comfortable home in Momence. Almost providential it would seem, was the visit paid her on the evening before she died by her only brother, Mr. John McGrath, a wealthy and influential business man of Chicago. She leaves a husband, and three children: Mrs. Brady, Alice and William. Mr. McGrath of Chicago and Mrs. Miller, also of Chicago, are respectively the only brother and sister. She was related to Austin Canovan, Mrs. W. W. Parish, Mr. J. J. Kirby and Mrs. P. J. Cleary. The funeral was held at 10:30 this morning at the Catholic Church in this city, of which the deceased was a member. Interment was in the Catholic Cemetery. The pall bearers were: Christopher Halpin, Martin Hughes, William Cleary, John Halpin, and James Narey.

Except for a reference by Mary Gwinn Bowe, I have not found any information that Darby McGrath and Ann Canavan had a daughter, Mary. In parish baptism records that I personally inspected, there is a Mary McGrath (b. 1846) who was the daughter of Darby McGrath and Ann O'Brien. This Mary McGrath is apparently the wrong Mary since there seems to be other evidence (1860 US census) that Mary McGrath was born about 1841.

Almost providential it would seem, was the visit paid her on the evening before she died by her only brother, Mr. John McGrath, a wealthy and influential business man of Chicago. She leaves a husband, and three children: Mrs. Brady, Alice and William. Mr. McGrath of Chicago and Mrs. Miller, also of Chicago, are respectively the only brother and sister. She was related to Austin Canovan, Mrs. W. W. Parish, Mr. J. J. Kirby and Mrs. P. J. Cleary. The funeral was held at 10:30 this morning at the Catholic Church in this city, of which the deceased was a member. Interment was in the Catholic Cemetery. The pall bearers were: Christopher Halpin, Martin Hughes, William Cleary, John Halpin, and James Narey.

Except for a reference by Mary Gwinn Bowe, I have not found any information that Darby McGrath and Ann Canavan had a daughter, Mary. In parish baptism records that I personally inspected, there is a Mary McGrath (b. 1846) who was the daughter of Darby McGrath and Ann O'Brien. This Mary McGrath is apparently the wrong Mary since there seems to be other evidence (1860 US census) that Mary McGrath was born about 1841.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. LEVI HASLETT
Mrs. Catharine Haslett, wife of Levi Haslett, died at her home in this city, Wed. Aug. 2nd, 1893. She had been of feeble health for several weeks. She was up and about as inclination prompted and on Wed. morning was in the back yard when she suddenly became prostrated with what is supposed to be heart trouble. She was found a few moments later by her daughter, Mrs. Brady, carried into the house and medical aid summoned, but life departed almost instantly. Mrs. Haslett was born Catharine McGrath, a native of Mayo, Ireland, in the year 1831. She continued to live in the land of her birth until the year 1850, when with her family she came to this country, first locating at Philadelphia. Later they moved to Chicago. On July 4th, 1855, she and Levi Haslett were united in marriage and took up residence in the family home in Ganer Township. They later moved to the comfortable home in Momence. Almost providential it would seem, was the visit paid her on the evening before she died by her only brother, Mr. John McGrath, a wealthy and influential business man of Chicago. She leaves a husband, and three children: Mrs. Brady, Alice and William. Mr. McGrath of Chicago and Mrs. Miller, also of Chicago, are respectively the only brother and sister. She was related to Austin Canovan, Mrs. W. W. Parish, Mr. J. J. Kirby and Mrs. P. J. Cleary. The funeral was held at 10:30 this morning at the Catholic Church in this city, of which the deceased was a member. Interment was in the Catholic Cemetery. Family of Mary Canavan and Anthony McNulty

15. Mary Canavan was born on Wednesday, August 11, 1847, in County Mayo, Ireland. She was the daughter of Anthony Canavan Sr. (4) and Ann Hughes.

Mary Canavan

Mary immigrated to Census reports show immigration in 1865/1869, but Mary is listed with the family in 1860. Perhaps she travelled to the USA with Grandmother Catherine. She died in Fort Dodge, Webster, Iowa, on April 30, 1933, at the age of 85. Mary was buried in Corpus Christi Cemetery, Fort Dodge.

Grave records for Corpus Christi Cemetery give Mary's DOB as 11 Aug 1847.

According to family history, Mary was an infant at the time that the rest of the family emigrated. She remained in Ireland with her grandparents until she was about 8 before traveling to the USA (1855) to be reunited with the family.

Helene Flaherty interview by Thomas Johnson

--Mary, Helene's mother, was 6 weeks old when her parents and three older brothers (Jim, John, and Tony) emigrated.

--She was left with her grandmother since it was likely that she would not survive the voyage.

--Mary arrived in Philadelphia when she was 7 years old. She had travelled with cousins who emigrated. Mary's father was at the docks to meet them, but they travelled to Kankakee Co IL where the rest of the family was living by then (abt 1855).

--Helene says that Mary was devastated by the news (that came by letter) that her grandmother had died in Ireland. Must have been Mary Carney since Catherine Kirby Canavan died in Momence 1862.

--Mary saw fire apparatus from St. Louis traveling to fight the great Chicago fire (8 to 10 Oct 1871). Also saw the smoke from the Chicago fire in Manteno.

According to Maurice Peter Hart, Mary moved to Grand Junction and was responsible for enticing her brother, John, to move to that area because the price of land was cheap compared to Kankakee. (Other information suggests that John was in Iowa before Mary and Anthony John McNulty moved from Chicago to Iowa some time after the worlds fair.)

The will of Anthony Canavan (drawn up by his son Gus Canavan who was a graduate of Yale law school) provided that following the death of his wife, Ann (1899), the remainder of his estate should be divided into 30 equal shares. Mary was to receive two shares.

1900 US census (7 Jun). Household in Dawson, Greene IA. Anthony McNulty (48, b. July 1851 Ire, parents Ire) farmer. Immigrated 1868 (32 yrs in US) and naturalized. Mary (48, b. 1910 US census (28 Apr). Household in Dawson. Anthony (58 Ireland, parents Ireland) is a farmer. Immigrated in 1869. Mary (58 Ireland, parents Ireland) immigrated in 1858. They have been married 31 years. 7 children born/5 surviving. AG (30 IL) is a farmer. Margaret (22 IL) keeping house. Marie (18 IA) keeping house. John P. (16 IA) farming. Helene (14 IA).

1920 US census (12 Jan). Household at 1524 4th Ave in Fort Dodge, Webster IA. Anthony McNulty (67 Ire, parents Ire) farmer. He immigrated 1869, and naturalized 18??. Mary (67 Ire, parents Ire) immigrated 1859. Anthony J. (36 IL) farmer. Margaret M. (28 IL) stenographer for insurance co. Marie J. (26 IL). John P. (24 IA) farmer. Helen D. (23 IA).

The will of Thomas Canavan gives one of eight equal shares of the remainder of his estate to his sister, Mary McNulty of Payton IA.

FAG memorial created by "Burt." The notes quote a section of "The Canavan Family" by Mary Gwinn Bowe in regards to Mary Canavan McNulty. The passage is slightly different than the version that was given to me by William Bowe. The passage in the FAG memorial reads, "The first four children born in Ireland were James, John, Anthony, and Mary. Mary was an infant and did not emigrate with the others. She remained in the care of her maternal Grandmother (Hughes) until she was 7 years old, and then made the crossing with other family."

At the age of 31, Mary married Anthony McNulty on Wednesday, November 06, 1878, in Greene when he was 27 years old.^[7] They had eleven children: Anthony, James, Annie, Margaret, Margaret, Marie, John, Helene, James, Anthony and John.

Anthony McNulty

Anthony was born in Mayo, Ireland, on Wednesday, January 01, 1851. Anthony reached 81 years of age and died in Fort Dodge, Webster, Iowa, on August 15, 1932.

Byrne's negotiator and top labor adviser

To some in the 1970s and '80s, William B. Hanley was a bit of a miracle worker.

As an expert labor management attorney, Mr. Hanley represented the Chicago Transit Authority during labor contracts with its operating unions, negotiated the first labor contract between the city and the Fraternal Order of Police and--in one of his proudest moments--brought an end to a three-week strike by the city's firefighters.

As counsel and chief negotiator for the Associated Milk Dealers, he helped resolve a 21-day shutdown by milk wagon drivers. He also worked on behalf of the Chicago Bakery Employers Council.

Mr. Hanley, 71, of Lake Forest, died of a heart attack, Sunday, Feb. 20, in Florida.

"I thought Bill was a wonderful, wonderful person," said former Mayor Jane Byrne. "He remained cool, cheerful and I thought he was also brilliant."

At the suggestion of several friends in the law profession, Byrne turned to him for help in 1980 during the firefighters strike.

While maintaining his private practice begun in the 1960s, Mr. Hanley became Byrne's chief negotiator and top labor adviser.

The success of the firefighter negotiations led the city to enact its first collective bargaining ordinance, Byrne said.

In 1982, he negotiated the pact between the city and the police as well as a labor contract between the CTA and its operating unions. A year earlier, he had become a consultant for the Chicago Board of Education during its contract talks with the Chicago Teachers Union.

Mr. Hanley was born in Michigan and raised in Evanston. After graduating from Loyola Academy, he received a law degree in 1958 from Loyola University Law School and joined the Air Force Reserve. Soon after, he joined the legal department of Montgomery Ward & Co., where he became involved in labor relations, then left to open his own practice in Chicago.

He met his future wife, Audrey Nahser, at an Irish Fellowship party. They married in 1961 and lived in Glencoe and Bannockburn before moving to Lake Forest in 1977.

"My father loved dealing with people and was very, very good at solving disagreements, a very good mediator," said his daughter Audrey Basler.

In 1981, he merged his firm with Bell, Boyd & Lloyd, rising to the head of its labor relations department. Six years later, he became a founding partner of Health Cost Controls, now Primax Recoveries, a Schaumburg subrogation company for the health care industry. In subrogation, a third party assumes another company's legal right to collect a debt or damages. Mr. Hanley retired from Bell in 1993.

Besides his wife and daughter, other survivors include another daughter, Julia Harrigan; two sons, William Jr. and Christopher; three brothers, Patrick, Thomas, and David; and six grandchildren.

Visitation will be from 4 to 8 p.m., Thursday in Wenban Funeral Home, 320 E. Vine St., Lake Forest. Mass will be said at 10 a.m. Friday in St. Mary Catholic Church, 175 E. Illinois Rd., Lake Forest.

John Gibbons Lynch Sr., a resident of Cary, IL, and Inverness, FL, died on Tuesday, November 10, 2009, after a battle with gastric cancer. He was 87 years old.

Mr. Lynch was born in Oak Park, IL, on August 12, 1922, to the late Mary Catherine (Casey) and Patrick Columbus Lynch, and raised in Elmhurst, IL. He attended York High School and was a 1947 graduate of Lawrence University in Appleton, WI. Mr. Lynch was elected Vice President and Director of one of these banks, 1st Security Bank of Cary-Grove, until 1986.

His experience in data processing and banking led to a concept of the first non-bank telephone bill-paying system. Local and regional banks, phone companies, utilities and payees used this technology extensively. Renamed SafePay, he moved his firm into Chicago in 1986, where it remained until he retired in 1995.

After his retirement in 1995, he and Roberta divided their time between Inverness, FL, and Crystal Lake, IL, until her death in 2005. The following year he married Lorraine McSherry, and they resided in Cary and Inverness until his death.

Mr. Lynch was deeply involved in the community affairs of Cary and McHenry County. He worked with Cub Scouts, the Senior Citizens Council, Cary Youth Baseball and initiated a Girls Softball Division of the Cary Youth Baseball. He was a founding director of Lake Region YMCA, serving in that capacity from 1970-1975. In 1967, Mr. Lynch played a key role in organizing the United Fund of Southeast McHenry County (now the United Way of McHenry County). He was the founding President and served continuously as a director from 1967-1980. From 1979-1985, Mr. Lynch represented his parish, SS. Peter and Paul Church in Cary as a director of Catholic Social Services of McHenry County, serving as President from 1982-1985. He served as President of the Cary Chamber of Commerce from 1967-1973 and was a director from 1968-1975. He was given the Distinguished Service Award by the Cary-Grove Jaycees in 1979.

Treasured by his large family, John is survived by his wife, Lorraine McSherry; his daughters, Roberta (Gary) Terpstra of Chattanooga, TN, M. John Lee Snapp, 85, of Polson, died of natural causes at his home on Monday, Jan. 12, 2004. Surrounded by family and friends, his passing was peaceful. He will be missed by all who knew him. He touched the lives of everyone who came in contact with him in a very meaningful and special way.

John was born in Momence, Ill., on Oct. 6, 1918. John was one of seven children by parents Lee and Hazel Snapp. Raised along the banks of the Kankakee River, the family spent many happy times fishing and swimming right outside the back door of their home.

Upon graduating from Momence Community High School in 1936, John joined the Civilian Conservation Corps and worked on many projects in the Pacific Northwest for two years. Before moving to California John married the former Kathleen Brady of Momence and they eventually had four children.

Upon his arrival in California John worked as a welder in Los Angeles shipyards. He joined the Navy in 1942 and served on Adak Island in the Aleutians until his honorable discharge.

His return to the Southern California was the beginning of a new life and career with Manchester Tank and Equipment Company where he remained until his retirement in 1984.

Even though John had only received two years of business classes at a local college, his personal determination and drive made him a key player in the development and growth of the company which eventually expanded its production plants throughout the United States and Canada.

John designed much of the automated machinery to improve production and quality at Manchester. He also designed machinery for specials needs of customers.

As corporate senior vice-president in charge of production he was fondly respected by his employees and he always took the time to greet them warmly with a smile and handshake.

Manchester Tank owners Daryl and Robert Reifschneider not only depended upon his business savvy but looked up to him as a role model of exemplary character.

Retirement in 1984 was the beginning of a new and adventurous life for John. He continued to serve on the board of directors for Manchester Tank. He relocated to Flathead Lake region with new wife Virginia Coop. His love of flying, which began at the age of 55, continued throughout his later years as he explored various parts of Montana and nearby states from the air.

John and Virginia enjoyed traveling throughout the United States, Mexico and Central America with frequent visits to the Southern California area where most of their children and their families reside.

Between John and Virginia they have seven children, 18 grandchildren, and 13 great-grandchildren. In the winter months they resided in Wickenburg, Ariz.

John was a very patriotic American and served as a Boy Scout leader for many years. He also formed a car club for troubled boys in Long Beach, Calif. It pleased him to have the boys return to say hello and tell him their lives had turned around because of him.

John received a Congressional tribute on June 13, 1988, for his service in Morocco as a member of the International Executive Service Corps. He was a member of the American Legion. He was always proud to fly the American flag in front of their home.

John is survived by his wife Virginia; children Penny Lippincott of Livingston, Nancy Newberry of Corona, Calif., Dorey Schug of Huntington Beach, Calif., John Snapp of Conyers, Ga., nine grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; siblings Woody Snapp of La Crosse, Wis., Jane Rotondo of Bloomfield, N.J., and Amy Gannon of Peoria, Ill.

UW-La Crosse in 1981.

George and his loving wife of 40 years, Mary Ann (Wenger), were married in La Crosse on April 20, 1963. Together they raised three children, Kristina (Todd Macheel) Snapp of Milwaukee, Erik Snapp of Evanston, Ill., and Jennifer Snapp of Minneapolis. Dad and Mom enjoyed many adventures together, traveling all over the world and spending many weeks with their children and grandchildren "up north" at the lake. They also shared many campfires together at their summer getaway at Goose Island campground.

Dad was an exceptional husband, father, grandfather and friend who set an example of compassion, integrity, patience and generosity for everyone he met. He gave his time and financial support to so many organizations and people. He achieved the Fourth Degree in the Knights of Columbus and was an Eagle Scout. He volunteered countless hours to St. Pius X Parish, Mary Mother of the Church Parish, Western Wisconsin Work Force Development Board, Hmong Mutual Assistance, Senior Corp of Retired Executives (SCORE), Coulee Region Business Center, Boys Scouts of America and AARP Tax Preparation. He provided generous support to more organizations and people than we will ever know, from high schools and universities to Catholic missions to homeless people on the streets of Chicago, Minneapolis, Kyoto, Japan, and many other cities.

Upon graduation from UW-L in 1960, Dad worked as a chemist and production supervisor at E.I. DuPont in Chicago. In 1965, he returned to La Crosse, where he joined Trane Co. as a brazing engineer, assistant production manager and operations manager. He joined ALTEC in 1986 as a vice president/manager of Manufacturing. He remained at ALTEC until his retirement in November 1999.

He is survived by his wife; his three children; and his four grandchildren, Russell and Joseph Snapp, and William and Katerina Macheel. He is also survived by his father, George Snapp Sr.; his brother, Lee Snapp (Sue) of LaCrosse; his sister, Katherine (Jack) Niedfeldt of La Crosse; and many nieces and nephews. His mother, Geraldine Snapp; and his father-in-law, Russell Wenger, preceded him in death.

A Mass of Christian Burial in celebration of Dad's life will be Monday at 11 a.m. at Mary Mother of the Church Parish, St. Thomas More Church, 20th and Weston, La Crosse. The Rev. David Kunz will officiate. Entombment will follow at St. Joseph's Mausoleum in the Catholic Cemetery, La Crosse. Friends may call at Schumacher-Kish Funeral Home of La Crosse from 4 to 7 p.m. today, where a prayer service will be held at 6:30 p.m., and at the church Monday from 10 a.m. until the time of service.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be directed to the George Snapp, Jr. Memorial Scholarship Fund, Aquinas Schools Foundation, 315 So. 11th St., La Crosse, WI 54601. George W. Snapp Jr., 66, of La Crosse died unexpectedly at home Thursday, July 17, 2003. The many people he has touched during his life will miss him dearly. Words cannot describe the emptiness his sudden passing has left in the hearts of his family and friends.

He was born in La Crosse on July 1, 1937, to Geraldine (Kneifl) and George Snapp Sr. He graduated from Aquinas High School in 1955. He earned his bachelor's degree with majors in chemistry and math from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse in 1960 and his M.B.A. from UW-La Crosse in 1981.

Kathleen Hart 1981-2012

Funeral service for Kathleen Hart of Cedar Rapids, formerly of Emmetsburg, was held Saturday, Dec. 22, at Holy Family Catholic Church in Emmetsburg. Interment was in St. Jacob's Catholic Cemetery, Graettinger. Joyce Funeral Home in Emmetsburg was in charge of arrangements.

Kathleen Ellen Hart was born in Spencer on June 13, 1981 in the middle of an Iowa tornado. She is the eldest daughter of Peter and Colleen Ellen (Lindauer) Hart of Emmetsburg. Kathleen was a basketball star at Emmetsburg Catholic Grade School and Emmetsburg High School, where she graduated from high school. She attended Kirkwood Community College in the surgical nursing technical field.

Kathleen's infectious laugh could light up a room and make any event seem like a celebration. She loved her grandparents, Jeri and Dick Lindauer of Bellevue, NE, and the late Peter and Izzy Hart. Kathleen was friendly, loyal, and generous to any and all of her many friends.

On Tuesday, Dec. 18, Kathleen passed away at her home in Cedar Rapids at the age of 31.

She is survived by her daughters, Olivia Rose Hart, 12, and Amanyi Terralyn Hart, 3, to whom she devoted her entire life.

Left to cherish her memory is the extended Hart family that loved her: her parents; three brothers: Christopher Hart and his fianc, Emily Hubbell, Patrick Hart, and Sean Thomas Hart; sister, Mary Kate Hart; many beloved aunts, uncles, and cousins; her niece and nephew; and all of her "favorites."

I am a CPA and over the past 29 years have been employed by Moore Business Forms, prior to its acquisition by RR Donnelly, by Accenture, when it was still called Andersen Consulting, by Aladdin Knowledge Systems, an Israeli based computer security company, prior to its acquisition by Safenet, and most recently by the federal government with the Public Buildings Service. I work in Chicago, which is the headquarters for a six state region including Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota. I am the program analyst for the region's the performance management program and I also do quite a lot of the region's data mining, reporting, cost allocations, and return on investment pricing. Our region has over 35 million rentable square feet under management. I probably should have stopped with "I am a CPA" but I like talking about my work.
