UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE.

RICHARD GUINN, OF BALTIMORE, MARYLAND, AND MACON, GEORGIA.

TRADE-MARK FOR A MEDICINE CALLED A BLOOD-RENEWER.

STATEMENT and DECLARATION of Trade-Mark No. 12,815, registered December 1, 1885.

Application filed September 21, 1885.

STATEMENT.

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, RICHARD GUINN, a citizen of the United States, residing at Baltimore, in the State of Maryland, and doing business in the said city and at Macon, in the county of Bibb and State of Georgia, have adopted for my use a Trade-Mark for Medicinal Compounds, of which the following is a full, clear, and exact specification.

My trade-mark consists of the word "Pioneer" and the pictorial representation of an ax and arrow crossed, and a disk containing seven stars and the numeral "seven." The disk is placed over the ax and arrow, and in such position as to hide the point where they cross each other. The word "Pioneer" is on a curved line and extends over the disk, with its first letter crossing the ax and arrow to the left of the disk.

The essential feature of this trade-mark is the word "PIONEER," and it may be on a straight or a curved line and in any kind of type. It can also be used without the pictorial devices shown, or with a different device.

I have used this trade-mark continuously in my business since June, 1885; and the class of goods on which this trade-mark is used is a medicinal compound, and the particular description of goods comprised in such class is a blood-medicine, which I term a "blood-renewer;" and such words may be employed in connection with the trade-mark.

The said trade-mark is printed on labels, which are pasted on bottles containing the said medical compound, and on packages in which such bottles are inclosed, and it is used in various other ways to designate the said medical compound.

RICHARD GUINN.

DECLARATION.

City of Macon, State of Georgia, ss:

RICHARD GUINN, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the applicant named in the foregoing statement; that he verily believes that the foregoing statement is true; that he has at this time a right to the use of the trade-mark therein described; that no other person, firm, or corporation has a right to such use, either in the identical form or in any such near resemblance thereto as might be calculated to deceive; that it is used by him in commerce with the Dominion of Canada, and that the description and fac-similes presented for record truly represent the trade-mark sought to be registered.

RICHARD GUINN.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, at Macon, Georgia, this 11th day of July, 1885.
