Dear Jim:

You never cease to amaze me in the breadth of your interests and capabilities. From predicting the fall of the peso in the Wall Street Journal to trying to get a rise out of those readers of the New York Times interested in Yeast Germany, to promoting the marvels of trade with a more off-beat industrial power such as the German Democratic Republic.

I found your monograph enlightening and feel it only fair that I counter-inflict you with evidence of my own meanderings through a more local police state which happens to encompass your main campus.

With best personal regards, I remain,

Very truly yours,

William J. Bowe
