

Horse inspires gallantry

The issue arose when Willie Bowe, 1120 Lake Shore Dr., and Terry Randolph of the same address, both asked for Ginger as their mount for the children's horsemanship class in the Lincoln Park Horse Show.

The lads, both 7, wanted to enter the big, city-wide event sponsored by The SUN-TIMES, the Chicago Park District and the Lincoln Park Riding Association.

Both boys were eligible for the same class and each wanted to ride the chestnut horse.

The boys flip a coin, but they decided neither wanted to compete against the other while riding the favored Ginger.

So, together, they told their elders their decision:

"Give Ginger to somebody else," they said. "We'll each ride some other horse."

Designed by its sponsors to give rent-a-horse riders a chance at the show ring thrill usually reserved for show horse owners, the all-day event will begin at 10 a.m. and continue through 5 p.m.

All free, there are no entry fees or admission charges. More than 200 riders, ranging in age from 6 to 60 and representing the 50,000 enthusiasts who use the Chicago area bridle paths and trails, will participate. Beautiful, bronze trophies and ribbons will be awarded winners by The SUN-TIMES.

SUN-TIMES-CHICAGO
PARK DISTRICT-LINCOLN
PARK RIDING ASSN.,
The SUN-TIMES Horse Show
Committee,
211 W. Wacker Drive,
Chicago 6, Ill.

Please enter me in the following events:

- Children's Horsemanship
- Bridle Path Class
- Three Gaited Saddle Horse Class
- Five Gaited Saddle Horse Class
- Jumping Class
- Adult Pair Class
- Costume Class

Name (please print)

Address

Date of Birth Year Day Mo

Stable Affiliation

Entrants in children's and adult's horsemanship pair classes should also list name etc., of partner and mail with above coupon.

Had you thought of the cavalry?