

the present time which needs improvement, but that it is their firm belief that this improvement must come by supporting duly elected officials.

He further stated that they know that criticism and the right of protest is a vital part of a democratic system, but that their ideals can best be achieved as quickly as possible with less cost in men and materials through the process of law and order and not by methods that produce violence and bloodshed as a by-product.

He asserted that he and his colleagues are proud of Chicago because its Mayor, Richard J. Daley, was the first Mayor in the United States to endorse their movement, that since that time the Mayors of many cities and eight Governors have joined in sponsoring their program, and concluded by pledging support of the leadership dedicated to the high ideals of the Great Society.

After debate, on motion of Alderman Holman (seconded by Aldermen Campbell, Miller, Collins and Chew) said proposed resolution was Adopted, by yeas and nays as follows:

Yeas—Aldermen Parrillo, Metcalfe, Holman, Despres, Miller, Bohling, Condon, Lupo, Buchanan, Danaher, Zelezinski, Healy, J. P. Burke, Krska, Chew, Murray, Fitzpatrick, Campbell, Yaksic, Collins, Marzullo, Zydlo, Provenzano, T. F. Burke, McMahon, Keane, Sulski, Brandt, Sande, Laskowski, Aiello, Casey, Culbertson, Laurino, Kaplan, Scholl, Goldberg, Rosenberg, Fifielski, Kerwin, Hoellen, O'Rourke, Wigoda, Sperling—44.

Nays—None.

The Mayor thereupon called the Council's attention to the presence of a number of religious and lay Baptist leaders who were in attendance at the meeting. The visitors acknowledged the Mayor's introduction.

Tribute Paid to Late Judge Augustine J. Bowe.

Honorable Richard J. Daley, Mayor, on behalf of himself and the other members of the City Council submitted the following proposed resolution:

WHEREAS, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom has called to his eternal reward the Honorable Augustine J. Bowe, Presiding Judge of the Chicago Municipal Division of the Circuit Court of Cook County, on February 6, 1966; and

WHEREAS, In a long and active career as eminent jurist, trial lawyer, civic leader and patron of the arts, Augustine J. Bowe served this community and its people for more than fifty years with outstanding personal integrity, legal capacity and never failing dedication and devotion to the cause of the administration of justice; and

WHEREAS, He was elected Chief Justice of the Municipal Court in 1960 and served in that capacity until January 1, 1964, when a judicial reform amendment to the Constitution of Illinois became effective and he assumed the post he held at his death, in which capacities he was an able, outspoken administrator, who by personal example and fair administration achieved notable improvements in the rules and regulations and practice and procedure of the Chicago Municipal Court and raised its efficiency and prestige; and

WHEREAS, Augustine J. Bowe practiced law with distinction in Chicago, his native city, for forty-seven years, specializing in trial and appellate law, was highly regarded by bench and bar, and was president of the Chicago Bar Association from 1955 to 1956; and

WHEREAS, His civic and humanitarian interests were of wide scope; he served at one time as chairman of the Illinois Committee for Equal Job Opportunities, as chairman for the Chicago Human Relations Commission, from 1948 to 1960, as a member of the Prisoners' Welfare Association, as chairman of the Commission on Chicago Architectural Landmarks, as a director of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, and as chairman of the Loyola University Citizens' Board, from which University he had received his Bachelor's degree and law degree; and

WHEREAS, Augustine J. Bowe was an early guarantor of Poetry Magazine, founded by Harriet Monroe in 1912, to which he was a regular contributor of verse, and he helped found the Modern Poetry Association and was its president; and

WHEREAS, He was a man known for his kindness, compassion, and fairness, a champion of human rights and of improved race relations, a man imbued with the virtues of faith, hope and active charity, of high ideals and firm loyalties to his friends, to his fellow citizens and to mankind; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved, That the members of the City Council, in meeting assembled this 3rd day of March A. D. 1966, do hereby make public acknowledgment of our esteem for Augustine J. Bowe and our deep sense of loss, and extend to his bereaved widow, Julia, to his son, John, to his daughter, Julie, and to his four grandchildren, our most sincere condolences; and

Be It Further Resolved, That as a mark of respect to his memory, this Resolution be incorporated in the permanent Record of the Proceedings of the City Council, and that a copy thereof be presented to the family of Augustine J. Bowe.

By unanimous consent, committee consideration was dispensed with, and on motion of Alderman Goldberg (seconded by Aldermen Despres and Murray) said proposed resolution was Adopted, unanimously, by a rising vote.

Alderman Goldberg and the seconding Aldermen eulogized the late Judge Bowe recalling his excellent judicial temperament, his fairness and consideration of all human rights; his high ideals in relation to all peoples and his many activities in civic affairs of our City. They each expressed their sorrow and extended sympathy to his bereaved family.

Honorable Richard J. Daley, Mayor, addressed the Council to pay his personal respects to the memory of the late jurist, whose death had been a great shock and sad loss not only to the bereaved family and his many friends but to the City because of his unstinting contribution of his time and talents to numerous humanitarian and civic activities of benefit to his fellowmen.
