

1957

representative: Joe Bellows has two little girls in our lower school.
 C. Hallbauer is teaching accounting at the University of ida while working on her PhD in Economics.
 line Chor and her husband, Ralph S. Dormitzer, Brookline, sachusetts, have two sons.
 Driscoll M.D. is still chief of the department of Radiology e Naval Station in Long Beach, California. He expects to re-to Chicago next summer to finish his residency in Radiology e Presbyterian-St. Lukes Hospital. Meanwhile he is devoted iling and owns an Olympic class Finn dinghy. He is Come of the Navy Yacht Club. He adds that he "has one wife two children."
 l E. Braude is an attorney in the Legal department of Abbott oratories after four years with the Federal Trade Commission. the past two years he has been Editor-in-Chief of the Federal yer Magazine, a publication of the Federal Bar Association.
 el lives across from the new school, in the Sandburg apart-s.
 Balaban (Mrs. Sherman Magidson) has a small son, Jimmy, r 2nd grade.
 atcliffe and her husband Lee H. Yearley, Palo Alto, California, arents of their second child and first son, now six months old.
 Schroeder and her husband, Richard E. Shutter have taken use in Lake Forest.
 y McNally IV (Sandy) works for the family company. He is tied and the father of a son and a daughter.

1958

representative: Palmer Cameron lmer Cameron is working for IBM and has a new apart-
 : on West Goethe.
 Morgan and her husband, Richard J. L. Senior, brought their child, Alden Lane, from England to spend Christmas with arents, the John Alden Morgans. The baby was christened at Chrysostom's during the holidays and Pamela Morgan, a r at Stanford was godmother.
 l Grossman is working in Denver, Toni Allen is in California.
 t Arnsdorf M.D. Bergenfield, New York, is on a two-year wship in Cardiology at Columbia-Presbyterian Hospital in York City. His wife Mary, is half way to her doctorate in c at Columbia.
 ter G. Tuteur Bryn Mawr, Penn., has a National Institute ealth research fellowship in cardio-pulmonary psychology at Medical School of the University of Pennsylvania. His wife n will receive her PhD from the University of Chicago this ner in the field of Educational Sociology. They have a daugh-ennifer now nearly two.
 Mayer and her husband, Robert E. Wood II, who have been ission Hills, Kansas, have moved back to Chicago and have partment on Lake Shore Drive. Katherine has entered our or kindergarten.

1959

Representatives: Rebecca Ericsson (Mrs. Robert Hunter)
 ard Van Mell ebecca is the busy mother of two small boys. Dr. Hunter has leted his military assignment and has returned to his Chipractice and Billings Hospital.
 chard is to be married to Miss Marjory Astley-Bell in St. s Church in New York in March. She is a graduate of Northern and has been working as a commercial artist in Chicago. is project manager of the Terminals Division of General sportation Corp. This was the career he chose after his grad-n from Dartmouth and a year in the graduate school at hwestern. He is an enthusiastic sailor and was a vice-presiof the New England Intercollegiate Sailing Association. his college days he has twice crewed in trans-Atlantic races.
 Judd has been in Tennessee with the Aladdin Company, ers of Thermoware, for several years but has been trans-d to Oakville, Canada, where he is a manager of the Canadian ch. For the winter months, skiing is close by and very fine.
 nd his wife are delighted with the life there.
 Nordlinger Stern is an attorney and counselor at law in Co-ia, Missouri.
 Iarsteller (Mrs. Stuart Gordon, San Francisco) has abanded teaching in favor of housekeeping, tennis, volunteer work househunting. Last summer she and her husband traveled to Orient and enjoyed it so much they hope to return for a er stay. Julie loves the West, too, and spent several weeks : during the summer holidays.
 Keep and her husband, Edward U. Notz, have a son, very named for his father. oldberg is a lawyer with offices in the Loop. He is the father Kaaren Becker (Mrs. N a F seve) New York, is working in the office of New York ers. Her husband is in a bank.

 Nancy Baker has completed all the requirements for her PhD degree in Philosophy and will go to England in April to deliver a series of lectures in her subject.

1960

Class representative: Constance Graham Bischof.
 Constance Graham resigned from her position as Social worker with the Illinois Department of Mental Health when she became the wife of Harrington Bischof but writes that she is even busier as a full-time housewife. She is still the representative of Smith College, however, and came to school in the autumn to interview our senior girls who are preparing for college.
 Karen von Maltitz, who has lived in New York since her graduation from Vassar was married there in November to Mr. Donald J.
 DeWolfe. They are living in New York as he is in business with an advertising firm in the city.
 William T. Bowe is in Washington, working for the Counterintelligence Analysis Branch of the Office of Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence, Department of the Army. (How does any one memorize all these complicated and mysterious titles).
 Bill also has a part-time job with the KGB.

Debra Cameron is another who has gravitated to New York where she is working.
 Steven Kaplan, graduated from UCLA, is in business in Chicago.
 Richard Holm, after graduating from the University of Nevada South, and four years in the Navy is working in the trust department of the Bank of Nevada in Las Vegas. In February he was married to Miss Deborah Lee Ash, a fellow worker in the bank.
 Thor Jr. and Ronald Holm were members of the wedding party.
 Lynn Orschel is executive secretary to the vice-president of administration of Children's Memorial Hospital.
 Laurie Bowes (Mrs. Edward Weed) came to our Christmas Open House and admired the new building very much. Laurie is a housewife and a business woman as well, very busy, but finding time for service with the Auxiliary Board of the North Avenue Day Nursery.
 Lauren Holinger is in his third year at the Chicago Medical School.
 Abra Prentice and her husband, Jon Anderson, were in school recently to enter their little son in the lower school next year. Both are journalists, with their own column in The News and Sun Times.
 Susan Anderson (Mrs. John C. Wolf, New York) was married last May and they went to the Greek Islands for their honeymoon.
 Both are editors at the American Photographic Book Publishing Co. Susan writes about their large black dog, Grendel, whose "education is not very good."
 Robert Friese expects to have his degree in International law from Northwestern in June. After that long-worked for event, he hopes to return to Switzerland where he still has some connection with the language school he helped to start some years ago.
 Edward McNally, having worked at the Harris Trust for several years has returned to college to take his degree. Mrs. McNally who is a teacher of mathematics is now on the faculty of Latin.
 Martha McCormick and her husband, William O. Hunt Jr. (Latin '57)) have a son. Their small daughter, Hilary, is in our kinder-garden.

1961

Class representative: Linda Moses (Mrs. George R. Berns), Chicago.
 Linda has a daughter, Mara, now two years old. Her husband is a lawyer associated with Legal Assistance.
 Sally Mitchell and her husband, Bruce Tully, are established in Burlington, Vermont where he is engaged in a town planning program. In the early autumn they became the parents of twin daughters, Alison and Lisa.
 June T. Friedlob has been in Aspen for the last three years running a gift shop in the Pomegranate Inn just outside the town of Aspen. The Inn Shop she has named it, and like almost everyone who has settled in the mountains she loves the scenery and the atmosphere.
 Margo Moss has worked on Art Institute Publications since her graduation from Sarah Lawrence, but has now been promoted to the Publicity Department where she is Assistant in Public Relations.
 Michael J. Gaines has moved to Deerfield.
 Carl Solander celebrated his final release from the Navy in January with a ski trip.
 Rosalind Grenn (Mrs. Gerald Udkin) is settled in Bethesda, Maryland and likes it so much that she hopes to stay there permanently. They have recently added a daughter to the family and now have two girls and a boy.
 Harold Arnold who has been deeply interested in Hindu music for years is in India this year, studying at the University of Rangoon