

U S ARMY SAFEGUARD SYSTEM OFFICE

CRITICAL NUCLEAR WEAPON DESIGN
INFORMATION ACCESS CERTIFICATE

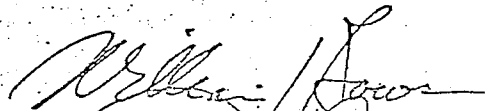

SECTION I (BRIEFING)

I acknowledge that I am being certified for access to Critical Nuclear Weapon Design Information (CNWDI) in connection with my current duty assignment.

I understand that CNWDI is extremely sensitive and is that TOP SECRET or SECRET Restricted Data revealing the theory of operation or design of the components of a thermo-nuclear or implosion-type fission bomb, warhead, demolition munition or test device. Specifically excluded is information concerning arming, fuzing and firing systems; limited life components; and total contained quantities of fissionable, fusionable, and high explosive materials by type. Among these excluded items are the components which Service personnel set, maintain, operate, test or replace.

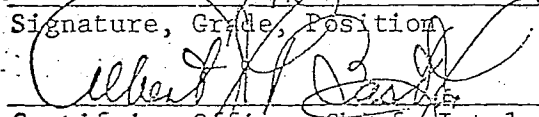

It is understood that the safeguarding of CNWDI is of such importance that its loss or compromise could result in irreparable damage to the United States. I therefore certify that I will not communicate, transmit or disclose in any manner CNWDI entrusted to me by virtue of this authorization to any person not currently authorized access to such information, and then only when required by my duty assignment. When my duties no longer require access to CNWDI, I will complete Section II of this form.
