12/20/76

Chicago today has lost a truly formidable figure. Richard Daley will be remembered as a unique leader who, as no other, loved his city with a passion. That will be remembered by all of us. He was both a & master tactician & strategist of politics, but he was also, at bottom, a simple man who never forgot that (and from) he was a child of Chicago as well as its mayor.