

Xerox ① file w/ cover ② return

In March, 1979, William Bowe became Of Counsel to the firm of Roan and Grossman in Niles, Illinois, and was elected Vice-President in charge of legal affairs of The Bradford Exchange, Ltd.

Edward Walker is presently serving as Florida Chairman of the Commercial Transactions Litigation Committee of the ABA. He was appointed Chairman by Peter Ostroff, who is the National Chairman of the committee.

Stanley Ornstein is in private practice in Cleveland, Ohio, and specializes in patent, trademark, and copyright law.

Frank Cook, of Indianapolis, Indiana, is the proud father of young Micah David, who was born July 20, 1979.

J. Douglas Ruff is currently Assistant General Counsel to the Criterion Insurance Co. and Senior Counsel of the Government Employees Insurance Co., Washington, D.C.

Linda Banfield Hoquet is a member of the firm of White and Case in New York City. She also has two young children, Laura and Helen.

As senior international attorney for Deere and Co., Frank Cottrell has spent the last two years living in West Germany.

Henry Hewitt, of San Francisco, California, now practices with the firm of Erickson, Beasley & Hewitt.

James Knoll is a partner in the Portland, Oregon firm of Bullivant, Wright and Leery.

Howard Eglit is an associate professor of law at IIT/Chicago-Kent College of Law and Of Counsel for Weiner and Eglit, Ltd., in Chicago.

Fred Weil, of Moraga, California, was elected to a four-year term as Trustee of the Governing Board of the Moraga School District.

Geoffrey Palmer, of Christchurch, New Zealand, is now a Labour Party member of Parliament for Christchurch Central; formerly, he was a professor of law at Victoria University of Wellington.

1968

Melvin Goldberg received tenure and a promotion to full professor at William Mitchell College of Law in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Antonio Laliberte, of San Jose, California, is a partner in the firm of Arthur Young & Co., an international firm of certified public accountants.

John Gwinn, of Urbana, Illinois, is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Champaign County Development Council Foundation, which is concerned with improving the environment.

Michael Mallin is Director of Tax Research at Arthur Andersen & Co., Toronto, Canada.

Tsuyoshi Kinoshita, of Tokyo, Japan, is a faculty member of the Rikkyo University Law School, where he teaches Anglo-American public law and Anglo-American private law.

1969

Leland Bull, Jr., Associate Professor of Law at the University of Detroit School of Law, will be a visiting professor during the Spring 1980 semester at the University of Clermont-Ferrand in France.

John Samuels was appointed Tax Legislative Counsel for the U.S. Department of the Treasury.

vjc 4/80 law school record